ATINTL Dear [REDACTED]

ATINTL In response to your letter of 26 November 1973, I wish to explain that we do not have any published guidance that might serve to answer your request. The procedures, however, in accordance with the terms of your secrecy agreement are that after you prepare a manuscript for publication, you should submit it to the Office of Security for their review. The secrecy agreement relates to that information acquired during your employment with the Agency and does not apply to items not related to your work, for example, Parent Teachers' organization. Also, it should be understood that the manuscript should be submitted to the Agency for review prior to discussing it with any publisher. If you have any specific questions, you may contact the Office of Security, External Activities Branch, telephone: [REDACTED]

STATINTL Sincerely,

[REDACTED]

Office of the General Counsel
Central Intelligence Agency

Dear Sirs,

I became an Agency consultant on 29 June 1973 and that is my current status. It is very likely that in retirement I will be doing some writing which deals with or touches upon the Agency. I have assumed that you must have some unclassified yet authoritative guidance material on hand or concern the restrictions upon me in this regard. I would be most grateful if you would send such guidance to me.

Yours sincerely,

STATINTL
